Will Meet To Discuss Enlarging School Bd.

Several groups of interested citizens will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 19 in the Memorial Hall library to discuss the article in the town warrant calling for an increase in the school committee from five to nine members.

Represented in these groups will be some persons who favor the increase and others who feel that the smaller body is more efficient.

At the meeting a representative of the New England School Development council, to which the Andover School department belongs, will be present to furnish current information on school committee organization in other communities of New England.

Meanwhile, this debatable question is scheduled to come before the voters for action at the next town meeting. It was only a few years ago that the committee was reduced from nine to five.

Sponsors of the present article advance several reasons why they feel the board should be increased, one of which is that certain districts of the town are not represented on the board and a larger membership would increase the opportunity for a better distribution of representation.

There are many other considerations that enter into the presentation of the article at this time. These have been listed by Mrs. William Edwards of Salem st., one of the sponsors of the article, as follows:

Article 41 in the town warrant to increase the number of members from five to nine was made with the following considerations:

Better opportunity for representation throughout the town; The financial importance of the school system to the tax burden;

Boy Scout Groups Join To Observe Anniversary

Local boy scouts will be observing the 43rd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America the week of Feb. 7 to 13 with special exercises in which packs, posts, troops and explorers will take part.

Scout Sunday will be observed Feb. 7 by almost all of the local groups.

Troop, post and pack 75 of St.

Augustine's church will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock Mass and then adjourn to St. Augustine's school hall at 10 o'clock for their annual communion breakfast.

At this event many of the men who assisted in forming the boy scout troop in the parish 25 years ago, in April 1927, will be honored.

Among them are: Joseph A. McCarthy, now chief of advancement of the Andover district; Henry Page, John P. Alexander, William A.

Mothers' March Ends Polio Drive

With the Mothers' march on Jan. 29 Andover's 1953 Polio Fund drive came officially to a close. Because donations are still coming in, no final figures are available, but last Thursday's collection was substantially above that of a year ago.

Chief C. Edward Buchan and the firemen who worked with him on the scrap metal collection begun in early December, and on the paper drive last month are enthusiastic about the response of the townspeople to their appeals.

Police Sergeants Alternate Duties

The selectmen, who have taken over supervision of the police department since the death last November of Chief George A. Dane, are alternating the direction of the force between Sergeants W. R. Hickey and David L. Nicoll.

This policy went into effect last month when Sgt. Hickey was designated officer in charge for January and worked days. Sgt. Nicoll is officer in charge for February and will be on duty days, at which time Sgt. Hickey will be on night duty. The sergeants will alternate each month.

The selectmen have not heard from the civil service commission since their request last December to have examinations held for the position of chief and of sergeant.

One of the important items in this year's town warrant is an article which the selectmen sponsor asking authorization to purchase land near the center of the town for a possible parking area. With this they ask a transfer of $10,000 from the parking meter fund to acquire the land. At present they have several sites in view.

The selectmen recently received approval from the state for a change in the by-laws to zone the land in the rear of the Shaw property as a business area so that it may be used for off-street parking. Work on this project will be started in spring but the selectmen are looking for another location for parking nearer the square. The Andover Board of Trade is also backing this move.

The selectmen are also asking for an appropriation of $4000 for the erection of a traffic control booth where the blinker now stands in Elm square.

They have conferred with the police department about this project.

Talk On Sewerage

Last Thursday evening about 130 people met in the Community room to discuss the sewerage question in Ballardvale. Joseph A. McCarthy, chairman of the special committee on sewerage and water reviewed the four different types of construction. He spoke of many joint meetings which had been held with the board of health and board of public works. He gave a detailed description of a filtering plant which would be located about 500 ft. beyond Dale street adjacent to the Shawsheen river, and also explained operation costs, installation and maintenance.

Sidney P. White, chairman of the B.P.W. also outlined types of construction. The area to be serviced the first year would begin at a large manhole on Andover street between the river and railroad tracks, and would cover the part of the town that is badly in need of it. He stated however that before any construction took place that a complete engineering study would be made.

After the talk a question and answer period was held. This period brought interesting questions. Before adjournment questions were asked about increased taxes and Mr. White stated that the board of assessors would review any and all sections to town where improvements were made. A rising vote of thanks was given the two men.

The Town Warrant

A perusal of the 67 articles contained in this year's town warrant forecasts a rather lively town meeting with several debatable issues to be settled.

Proposal for an increase in the wages of town employees, enlargement of the school committee from five to nine members, open meetings of the selectmen, consolidation of the tree and moth department with the board of public works, a sewerage system for Ballardvale, and the purchase of land near the center of town for a public parking space are just a few of the subjects which may evoke considerable discussion before they are put to a vote.

Of course the financial angles will enter largely into many of the decisions that are made. In all, the special articles which call for money to be raised by taxation run up to the unusually high sum of $197,600.

With every additional $20,000 appropriated adding $1 to the tax rate it is not difficult to figure out what an increase it would mean if all of these articles calling for the expenditure of money are adopted.

Figures for all of the departmental budgets are not yet available. The selectmen report that the budget for departments under their control will be less than a year ago but the expected increases in other departments will overbalance the saving there.

The school department budget will be much more than last year with another increase in enrollment expected.

Andover is growing rapidly and with that growth the cost of town government will also increase.

The impact usually hits the town meeting through the special articles in the warrant, so that it is vitally important that before passing judgment on them voters should make it their business to study them carefully together with the forthcoming reports of the finance committee and the Andover Taxpayers' association.

Thus informed, they will be better prepared to act at town meeting for the best interests of all concerned.

For many years the stream of American life has been polluted by the doctrines of socialism. Its allure disguises its real philosophy, which is communism. — Jefferson (O.) Gazette.

Two thirds of the two and a half billion people of the world are hungry, many are ill, thousands are illiterate. These factors contribute to revolution which can take any form. Here Stringfellow Barr asks, "Will our foreign policy influence them? How?" Books For French Libraries Wanted

Any person who has books of recent fiction and more serious non-fiction in fine physical condition who wishes to contribute them to the growing library overseas called the American Library In Paris, is invited to leave them at the Memorial Hall library from which they will be sent to their permanent home.

This project was begun during the first World War, when reading material was sent from the United States to provide for our soldiers stationed in France. In the 1920's the American Library association established a $25,000 endowment and the American Library In Paris was incorporated as a private non-profit organization. Since then, there have been several branches opened, all of which have given to the people there an opportunity to learn about the United States through the books which were loaned out. At present, there are 3,000 members of the library, with over 60% of the readers being the French people themselves.

Books for young people of ages fourteen through eighteen are especially in demand.

When people work for General Electric, they get a great deal of extra security. Locally eighteen million dollars worth! Last year alone, this huge sum was set aside by G. E. just for Employee Benefit Plans in the Lynn and Everett Works. Here's how it benefits local folks:

Case No. 3976 — Mrs. X had to have a throat operation. She's been out for 20 weeks. Up to now the G-E Benefit Plan has paid her $744.24 for the surgeon, hospital and special services plus $667.67 worth of weekly disability insurance, a total of $1411.91.

Case No. 5653 — Mr. Y. was shot on a hunting trip and confined 44 days in a hospital. So far the Benefit Plan has paid him a total of $1156.57. This covers both weekly sick benefits and hospital and physician expenses. The fact that he was hurt off the job makes no difference in his benefits.

Spread around in many ways, G. E.'s nest egg helps many local people. Over $87,485 of it was paid employees through the Suggestion System for thinking up new ideas and improvements. More than a million dollars was paid in pensions to over 1,380 former employees. Many millions more were paid for other employee benefits ranging from life insurance premiums to paid vacations to paid holidays to stock bonuses. $1,652,272 in health insurance alone was paid out to 3,809 G-E workers or their families.

When our employees receive such benefits, the entire Community benefits — another reason why "G. E." also stands for "Good Employment".

League Of Women Voters

At the winter luncheon on Jan. 27, John Kingman, former member of the advisory committee of the Youth Service board spoke about the work of this important board. Although it is still in the experimental stage and needs more workers and money, the speaker said, it has proven that it is a step in the right direction in dealing with the problems of delinquent youth. It is interesting to note that P. K. Allen of this town was instrumental in the establishment of the board.

There will be a meeting of the league board at the home of Mrs. Hart Leavitt at 7:45 p.m., Monday, Feb. 9.

MOTHERS MARCH
ENDS POLIO DRIVE

"We are most grateful to all the people who contributed, and who even took the trouble to phone in so that we could pick up all their donations. We are specially indebted to those who loaned trucks and volunteered to help us," says Chief Buchan. "Andover has done a good job in helping to supply the money needed to take care of polio victims and to carry on the research that now promises to provide some real relief from the attacks of this crippling disease.

A complete report of the splendid work of "The Marching Mothers" and the other cooperating committees will be released at a later date.

Three Appointed Auxiliary Police

Three appointments to the auxiliary police force were made by the selectman at Monday night's meeting.

Joseph S. Auchterlonie of Essex st., Roland H. Archambault of Webster st., and Dan P. Naylor of High st., are the new men added to the force at the recommendation of David L. Nicoll, civilian defense director.

The Lawrence Gas & Electric Co. was granted two pole locations on either side of Main street in the vicinity of Salem street for street lights, on application of the trustees of Phillips academy. With the installation of the two new poles one of the present number is to be removed.

It was voted to remove a parking meter from a location on Park street across the street from the central fire station. Cars parked at that meter from time to time have hampered movement of fire apparatus in and out of the station.

It was voted to amend the traffic by-laws to permit the operation of a flashing red light from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m. on Chestnut street at Main street, the red lights to control the Chestnut street traffic.

MANY IMPORTANT ARTICLES IN WARRANT

posal and the latter is supporting the move for this improvement.

Article 18 is to appropriate $207 for the purpose set forth in Chap. 166 of the Acts of 1952 which is to discharge a moral obligation to Albert Cole Jr. This, it is explained, is to correct a mistake in the fire department pay roll of a previous year, compensation for which cannot be taken out of this year's budget because of town laws. In order to raise the funds there must be an article in the town warrant for that purpose. This action has been approved by the state legislature and the selectmen.

Article 58 is to see if the town will accept a small triangle of land on the northwesterly side of Stevens street, near Main street from the J. P. Stevens Co. This does not refer to the triangular plot in the junction of these streets but a small area now used as a sidewalk near the corner on Stevens street. The money sought through article 59 for the purpose of advertising the town's resources and for Christmas lighting will allow the Andover Board of Trade to participate in the publicity program of the Essex County Board of Trade.

As pointed out by speakers at trade board meetings this area has recreational facilities and historical sites that yearly attract thousands from other parts of United States and Canada. What the local trade board wants to do is to help divert some of that tourist traffic to Andover so that the town may benefit from the money visitors leave in their travels.
